

CONSEQUENCES OF PLAGIARISM

By Filo

DPCDSB POLICY RELATING TO PLAGIARISM

I found out that they consider plagiarism to be cheating, and that it is an act of dishonesty. Consequences could be as bad as getting 0s in assignments and tests, or getting in trouble by the principal.

AFTER HIGHSCHOOL

I am thinking of going to university. University of Waterloo and University of Toronto both consider plagiarism as presenting the words or ideas of other people's property, which they are considering as stealing. The consequences are 0s and suspensions.

PLAGIARISM IN THE WORKPLACE

NBC News says parts of 11 articles were plagiarized. - The New York Times \(nytimes.com\)

This article is showing how a news reporter was accused of using plagiarism in 11 different articles. This reporter was named Teaganne Finn who was previously a breaking news reporter but no longer works this job anymore